Hospitality and Catering

Course ID: Hospitality and Catering
Department: Humanities
Award: WJEC

About

Selections of students studying Catering for GCSE have also been offered the opportunity to combine this course with Hospitality in order to offer students a holistic view of the industry. The aims of the courses are to help students to further their education and work in these areas.

Homework – students will be set relevant homework relating to the sections of the course they are working on at specific times in the year.

Course details – WJEC Welsh Board single award in Hospitality and WJEC Board single award in Catering.

Course Content

Year 7
Hospitality – Unit 3 planning, preparing, running and evaluating an event assignments conducted in College in year 10, internally assessed, then externally moderated. Mark allocation 60%

Hospitality – Unit 4 a written examination completed at the end of the course, prepared for in year 11. Mark allocation 40%

Year 8
Catering – Unit 1 a mixture of written and practical assignments conducted in College throughout years 10 and 11, internally assessed, then externally moderated. Mark allocation 60%

Catering – Unit 2 a written examination completed at the end of the course, prepared for in year 11. Mark allocation 40%

Trips
Shopping for event at The Range/Makro
Paultons Park
City College
Hotel Visit

Plus guest speakers from prison service caterers, school caterers, chefs and other staff from local industries