

28th November 2022

Dear Parents,

I hope you and your family are well. I am writing to you following our Ofsted visit on 11th - 12th October 2022.

In their report, inspectors have found that the academy has 'Good' quality of education and provides 'Good' personal development for our students. They have highlighted that as a leadership team and academy family we have further work to do on student behaviour, which was judged as 'Requires Improvement.' Overall, the academy has received an inspection judgement of 'Requires Improvement.'

This is the first inspection of the academy since we joined the Oasis Community Learning Trust, and there is much to celebrate in their findings. Inspectors praised the 'broad, ambitious curriculum which is designed and delivered well', which means that students achieve well. Our staff team 'have the right subject expertise because they are well trained and work together collaboratively.'

As you know, at the academy we are passionate about every student making excellent progress and having the opportunities that they deserve to flourish. We are therefore very pleased that inspectors also recognised that; 'Pupils learn how to keep themselves safe', that 'Many subjects help develop pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural understanding', that 'The school provides a range of good quality extra-curricular activities' and that 'careers information, education, advice and guidance they receive is effective'.

Inspectors noted our recent work to raise expectations with regards to ensuring that student behaviour is consistently good everywhere and highlighted that they would like to see further improvement on this issue. We, of course, take this feedback seriously and we have already started to address the points raised in the final report to ensure that all students feel free from bullying. We have revised the behaviour plans we have initiated to ensure these are robust and will accelerate improvements in behaviour across the school.
