Dear parents

School closure – Thursday 2nd November

This afternoon we have received notification that the Met Office will be issuing a 'red weather warning', in effect from midnight until late tomorrow evening (Thursday 2nd November). Extremely strong winds are anticipated, with the potential for damage to buildings and homes, and the risk of flying debris.

Our overriding priority is the health and safety of students, parents and staff. Whilst students and staff are likely to be safe indoors, there is a significant risk for everyone whilst travelling tomorrow morning.

After consultation with our partners at Southampton City Council, Oasis Community Learning have taken the decision to close our 3 Oasis academies in the region on Thursday 2nd November 2023, including Oasis Academy Sholing.

We apologise for the late notice of the closures however announcements about the severity of the storm have only just been made. We must ensure that we do not put anyone unnecessarily at risk.

Tomorrow will be a remote learning day, so please do not bring your child to school. Further details to follow.

Thank you for your understanding. Please stay safe during the weather tomorrow and the school will be open as normal from Friday 3rd November 2023.
